

May the Force of Long Term Care be With You

Spring is still far away, although maybe we can smell the lilacs in a few weeks! Cinco de Mayo, Mother's Day and the official start of summer, Memorial Day, all await.

Carrier News

None — starting to see a pattern here!

Meetings, Associations, CE

- May 13 — FPA of Greater Rochester hosts 2-hours of CE credit entitled "The LTC Conversation: What Every Financial Advisor Needs to Know," presented by Amanda Harvat, CLU. 7:45 am registration and buffet breakfast starts the day at Locust Hill CC! Reach out to rocfpaoffice@gmail.com for information and registration.
- Lifespan continues their educational programming with classes in May, go to www.lifespan-roch.org for a schedule.

Media of Interest (drop an email if you're also interested!)

- Dementia information, how to plan, how to avoid/postpone the disease, never anything on how to get it 😊
- Assisted living costs, nursing homes
- Aging in place, robots, AI
- Medicare Advantage changes
- Planning for the need for long term care support, the costs, the loopholes to get care, the insurance

Everyone needs and should take a vacation, including this newsletter! Unless the world turns totally upside down, as the oldie goes, "See You in September!"

Your health buys long term care insurance. Your money only pays the premium.
